November 9, 1799 – Fall of the French Revolution:

Napoleon Bonaparte participated in the Coup of 18 Brumaire, declaring himself First Consul and effectively ending the French Revolution

EXPLORE KEY HISTORICAL EVENTS FROM NOVEMBER 9 TO NOVEMBER 13 ACROSS WORLD AND LOCAL HISTORY:

November 9

- 1799 – Fall of the French Revolution: Napoleon Bonaparte participated in the Coup of 18 Brumaire, declaring himself First Consul and effectively ending the French Revolution. [1, 2]
- 1918 – German Revolution: The German monarchy fell as Kaiser Wilhelm II abdicated, and the Weimar Republic was proclaimed. [1]
- 1923 – Beer Hall Coup: Adolf Hitler and the Nazi Party launched a failed attempt to seize power in Munich, Germany. [1]
- 1938 – Kristallnacht (Night of Broken Glass): Nazi-orchestrated violent pogroms swept across Germany and Austria, destroying thousands of Jewish businesses, homes, and synagogues. [1, 2]
- 1989 – Fall of the Berlin Wall: Following massive peaceful protests and political pressure, East Germany opened the borders of the Berlin Wall, paving the way for German reunification. [1, 2, 3]

November 10

- 1868 – Te Kooti's Raid: Te Kooti and his followers attacked the settlement of Matawhero near Gisborne, New Zealand, resulting in the deaths of over 50 Europeans and Māori. [1]
- 1975 – SS *Edmund Fitzgerald: The massive American freighter sank during a severe storm on Lake Superior, claiming the lives of all 29 crew members.

November 11

- 1918 – Armistice Day: At 11:00 a.m. on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, an armistice went into effect, ending the fighting of World War I. [1]
- 1965 – Rhodesia's Unilateral Declaration of Independence: The white-minority government of Ian Smith unilaterally declared independence from the United Kingdom.

November 12

- 1912 – Waihī Strike Tragedy: Striker Fred Evans was fatally wounded during violent clashes between police and union miners during the 1912 Waihī strike in New Zealand.
- 1927 – Holland Tunnel Opening: The first continuous vehicular underwater tunnel in the United States opened, connecting New York City and New Jersey under the Hudson River via HistoryPlace. [1, 2]

November 13

- 1833 – Leonid Meteor Shower: A massive meteor storm lit up the night sky across North America, inspiring significant advancements in the scientific study of meteors.
- 1927 – The Holland Tunnel opens to public traffic under the Hudson River.
- 1956 – Desegregation Ruling: The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Browder v. Gayle that racial segregation on public buses was unconstitutional, legally ending the Montgomery bus boycott.
- 1985 – Armero Tragedy: The eruption of the Nevado del Ruiz volcano in Colombia triggered catastrophic lahars (mudflows), burying the town of Armero and killing over 20,000 people.
- 1990 – Aramoana Massacre: A gunman shot and killed 13 people in the small seaside settlement of Aramoana near Dunedin, New Zealand, in what remains one of the country's worst mass shootings.
- 2015 – Paris Terrorist Attacks: Coordinated Islamist terrorist attacks struck multiple locations across Paris, France, including the Bataclan theatre, leaving 130 people dead. [1, 2, 3, 4, 5]