

POEM OF THE WEEK

IS DOING ETHICAL THINGS BEING ETHICAL?

What the #$$%^& do ya mean?

“Is doing ethical things being ethical?”

Doing is being, being is doing

The subject is the verb, the verb is the subject

Good point. Consider this. How were those actions

Defined as being “ethical”, learned or assimilated?

Have they become habitual? I suppose anything

And everything becomes a habit eventually

Is there a motive? Is it to impress or be noticed?

Yes? Is it a question of degrees of showing off?

Are you showing off, or trying to convince yourself

Is such behaviour desirable and positive?

Does it indicate degrees of “being ethical”?

Yes, doing is being/being is doing; is “being ethical”

Indicative of another layer: to be aware of being aware?

Is awareness factored into this “being ethical stuff”?

It might be. What thinkest thou?
