OFF TO SEE THE WORLD

1492 CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS SETS OFF to explore the New World, searching for “the Indies”. The Santa María was the largest and the flagship of three ships used by Christopher Columbus for his first voyage to the "Indies" in 1492. The other two ships were the Pinta and Niña.

The owner and master of the Santa María was Juan de la Cosa, who was second-in-command to Columbus.

The Santa María ran aground and sank off the island of Hispaniola (Haiti) and was rediscovered in 2014.
