

POEM OF THE WEEK

WHO WANTS TO REPRESENT HUMANITY?

Who wants to represent Humanity?
In the Great Cosmic Court of Law;
Indicted of charges of cruelty, stupidity
Malice, lying, blindness and simplicity

I'm not sure who will or could pay
For the defence. Many will call you false
And deny being in the dock; others
Will simply deny, deny and mock

I feel it to be true. There will come a time
When the Cosmos says "Enough!"
"Enough cruelty, stupidity, and Malice, lying, blindness and simplicity!"

I can imagine hearing a song being sung
In a weary, mournful tone, beginning with "When Will they ever learn? When will they ever learn?"
No one, through the ages, has answered that.

Another question remains.
Who wants to represent Humanity?
In the Great Cosmic Court of Law;
Who wants to argue their defence?

Me? I'm ambivalent
Don't call me as a witness

Leslie D. Bush
© 13 October 2024